

MPHAP

METROPOLITAN POLICE HOUSING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Program

The Metropolitan Police Housing Assistance Program (MPHAP) provides police officers from the Metropolitan Police Department with financial assistance and other incentives to become first-time homeowners in Washington, D.C. MPHAP combines homeownership and community policing, which supports the Government of the District of Columbia's neighborhood stabilization efforts.

MPHAP loans are awarded to a limited number of eligible applicants each year, depending on funds allocated in the department's budget. Eligible applicants receive several benefits, including:

- Matching down payment funds of up to $1,500 ($500 for each $2,500 saved by an employee);
- Deferred payment loans of up to $10,000;
- Ability to keep an assigned patrol car during off-duty hours;
- An income tax credit of $2,000 per year for five years; and
- A property tax credit for five years, based on a sliding scale.

PROPERTY TAX CREDIT

First Year-----80%

Second Year-----60%

Third Year-----40%

Fourth Year-----20%

Fifth Year-----20%

Are You Eligible for a Loan?

To be eligible for a MPHAP loan, an applicant must:

- Be a full-time police officer for the Metropolitan Police Department;

7 Easy Steps to Homeownership

Step 1 – Contact Housing Counseling Services, Inc. for a pre-application housing counseling session.

Step 2 – Gather the required documentation requested by your housing counselor and complete your MHPAP application.

Step 3 – Wait for your eligibility letter to arrive from the Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL). If your application is approved, you will receive a Notice of Eligibility, which will indicate your financial assistance amount and the housing price range you qualify for based upon income, down payment costs and financing requirements.

Step 4 – Find a house and enter into a sales agreement to purchase it. Forward a copy of the sales agreement to GWUL.

Step 5 – Complete your mortgage application from your carefully selected financial institution. Be sure to include a copy of your Notice of Eligibility and sales agreement.

Step 6 – Complete the transfer of ownership from the current homeowner to you, which is known as settlement.

Step 7 – Move into your new home.
